Detailed description: This is a musical score for Baritone Saxophone, titled 'Let it snow'. The score is written in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of nine staves of music. The first staff begins at measure 60 and is labeled 'Intro 4t'. It contains six measures of music, each starting with a dotted quarter note followed by an eighth rest, then a quarter note and two eighth rests. The second staff starts at measure 7 and contains six measures of the same rhythmic pattern. The third staff starts at measure 13 and contains six measures, with the last two being whole notes. The fourth staff starts at measure 20 and contains six measures, including two triplet eighth notes. The fifth staff starts at measure 27 and contains six measures of the same rhythmic pattern. The sixth staff starts at measure 33 and is labeled 'Solo 8t' and 'Solo 8t'. It begins with a measure of the rhythmic pattern, followed by a 'TACET' section indicated by a thick black bar, and then continues with five measures of whole notes. The seventh staff starts at measure 42 and contains six measures, including two triplet eighth notes. The eighth staff starts at measure 48 and contains six measures of the same rhythmic pattern. The ninth staff starts at measure 54 and contains six measures, ending with a whole note. The score is written in a clean, professional style with clear notation for notes, rests, and articulation marks.
